

Word Scramble

Fill in the blanks in the paragraphs below with the correct words by unscrambling the letters to the left of the blanks.

A HORYET _____ is the most logical explanation of events that occur in nature. This explanation often results from the use of the SCINIFICTE DETMOH _____ . First, a problem must be stated. Then, after gathering information, a SOPTYHESHI _____ , or logical solution, is formed. The solution is then tested in an experiment. The factor that is tested in an experiment is called the BAVALIER _____. This factor is not contained in the RONTLOC PESTU _____. Sometimes principles of MECHRYIST _____ , the study of how substances change and combine, are involved in experiments. At other times, principles of SHICYPS _____ are involved.

The CERTIM MYSTES _____ is used for all measurements in science. Some basic units in this system are the TILRE _____ for volume, the LIKRAGMO _____ for mass, the degree ELUCSIS _____ for temperature, and the TREEM _____ for length. Sometimes the TESYNID _____ of a substance, or its mass per unit volume must be measured. If liquid volume is being measured, the reading is taken at the SISMUNEC _____. If dimensional analysis is needed, a NOSVIERONC TOFRAC _____ must be used.